

English, AA

School of Art, Humanities, Social Science and Public Service

Program Description

The Associate of Arts in English degree is designed for students whose goals are to transfer to a Pennsylvania Transfer and Articulation Committee (TAOC) institution as a major in English composition, creative writing, or literature. Students completing an AA and eventual four-year degree may enter fields of education, research, creative writing, technical writing, journalism, public relations, publishing, or other fields requiring a writing and/or humanities experience.

Program Learning Outcomes

Upon successful completion of this program, students will be able to:

- Understand the application of English studies (writing, literature) as influenced by and contributing to other disciplines
- Construct researched and well-written essays in a variety of modes and formats
- Demonstrate analytical skills in research, personal writing, and literary texts
- Apply critical philosophies and interpretation to literary text
