

Art Business, Certificate

School of Art, Humanities, Social Sciences and Public Service

The Certificate in Art Business provides practical information to sustain a career in art. Students learn the core principles of business, art law, grant writing, museum careers, contemporary art and other key concepts while examining the trends in art and the art market. Students will gain an understanding of the intricate art world network of galleries, auction house, dealers, artists, non-profits and more.

Career Opportunities

This certificate will expose students to a wide range of career tracks to initiate a professional path in creative industries and entrepreneurship. Jobs associated with museums will be introduced, from entry-level positions in visitor services and administrative assistants to advanced tracks, including curators, archivists, museum educators and technicians as well as fundraising and development.

Program Learning Outcomes

Upon successful completion of this program, students will be able to:

- Learn about the structure of the art world and the interplay between the commercial and non-profit sectors.
- Gain art market knowledge.
- Acquire knowledge about the range of careers within a museum.
- Develop transferable skills such as grant writing, collections management, and a marketing plan to sell an artwork.
- Have networking opportunities with regional art world professionals.
- Become familiar with current research resources for art law and art business.
- Foster knowledge about employment opportunities in the commercial art world, museum professions and the creative industries.
