

Early Childhood Education, AAS

School of Art, Humanities, Social Sciences and Public Service

This program reflects the standards established by the National Association for Education of Young Children (NAEYC) and PA Office of Child Development and Early Learning (OCDEL) for students in the field of early childhood education (ECE). The program provides a foundation for working in childcare settings with children from infancy through nine years while developing dispositions that center equity and critical educational practices. Developmentally appropriate practices, cultural responsiveness, and inclusiveness are emphasized as skills necessary for effective graduates. Supervised observational field experience is required and can be completed at approved early childcare sites. This program is available in online and lecture formats.

Career Opportunities

Graduates of this program are prepared to enter the early childhood workforce on Level V of OCDEL'S Career Lattice. Graduates are qualified for positions as: program director, preschool teacher, group supervisor, assistant group supervisor, home visitor, service coordinator, family childcare provider, and public school aide.

Program Learning Outcomes

Upon successfully completing this program, students will be able to:

- Identify and utilize curricula and pedagogies to promote equity for marginalized communities in education.
- NAEYC 1: Promote child development and learning.
- NAEYC 2: Build family and community relationships.
- NAEYC 3: Observe, document, and assess to support young children and families.
- NAEYC 4: Use developmentally effective approaches.
- NAEYC 5: Use content knowledge to build curriculum.
- NAEYC 6: Act as an ethical and professional early childhood practitioner.

Program Requirements

Students must achieve a grade of C in all ECE courses to complete this program. Students are required to maintain active membership in PSEA and to complete all clearances and requirements per field experience sites.

This program is eligible for full funding through the Early Care and Education PDO at PASSHE scholarship, PA TEACH scholarship, and Rising Stars Tuition Assistance Program.
