School of Culinary Arts and Hospitality

Program Description

The Culinary Arts Associate Degree Program is one of the majors comprising the college's School of Culinary Arts/Hospitality. This curriculum is planned to meet the increasing employment needs of the 21st century for trained culinary experts. The program includes classroom and laboratory experiences and requires students to complete a capstone internship. Students are responsible for securing an internship site which meets the program requirements. This major accommodates both part and full-time students.

Students are required to adhere to the department policies and procedures as stated in the School of Culinary Arts/Hospitality Student Handbook.

Requirements for the program include but are not limited to:

- Laboratory Uniform and Tool Kit
- Health Status Form
- Business Attire

Students, who are current members of the American Culinary Federation at the completion of this program, may apply for certification as a Certified Culinarian with the American Culinary Federation

Career Opportunities

Graduates of the culinary arts program may accept positions with the following titles: cook, station chef, working chef, sous chef, personal chef, sales representative, and manager.
