Program Description

The Culinary Arts AAS Degree program is one of the programs comprising the college's School of Culinary Arts/Hospitality. This curriculum is planned to meet the increasing employment needs of the 21st century for trained culinary experts. The program includes classroom and laboratory experiences and requires students to complete a capstone internship. Students are responsible for securing an internship site which meets the program requirements. This program accommodates both part and full-time students.

Students are required to adhere to the department policies and procedures as stated in the School of Culinary Arts/Hospitality Student Handbook.

Requirements for the program include but are not limited to Laboratory Uniform and Tool Kit, Health Status Form, and Business Attire.

Students, who are current members of the American Culinary Federation at the completion of this program, may apply for certification as a Certified Culinarian with the American Culinary Federation

Career Opportunities

Graduates of the culinary arts program may accept positions with the following titles: cook, station chef, working chef, sous chef, personal chef, sales representative, and manager.
