Table of Contents

Directing Students to Online Resources .................................................................................................................. 2
   WCCC College Website (www.wccc.edu) .................................................................................................................. 2
   WebAdvisor on the MyWCCC Student Portal (my.wccc.edu) ................................................................................. 3
   FAFSA Website (www.fafsa.ed.gov) ..................................................................................................................... 13
   Department of Education ...................................................................................................................................... 14
   Financial Aid Department at WCCC ................................................................................................................... 14
Directing Students to Online Resources

More and more financial aid information is available online to allow students to research, complete applications, and monitor financial aid at any time. All students should be encouraged to use these resources for information regarding his/her FAFSA application: the Financial Aid page of the WCCC College website (www.wccc.edu), the WebAdvisor on the MyWCCC Student Portal (my.wccc.edu), the FAFSA website (www.fafsa.ed.gov), and/or the Department of Education (1-800-433-3243) to get information. The Financial Aid Department at WCCC should become their last resort for information.

WCCC College Website (www.wccc.edu)

Basic financial aid information is available on the Financial Aid page of the College website (www.wccc.edu)

- Financial aid application procedures
- Links to financial aid websites
- Financial aid guidelines
- Financial Aid online forms
WebAdvisor on the MyWCCC Student Portal (my.wccc.edu)

The student should check the WebAdvisor on the MyWCCC Student Portal (my.wccc.edu) to see the status of his/her FAFSA application

- Complete the log-in procedures to the Student Portal (my.wccc.edu)
- Click <Communication>
Click <My Documents>
View the status of the student’s FAFSA application

- Confirm that we have or have not received the FAFSA application
- See if the FAFSA has been rejected
- Determine if the student has been selected for verification
- If not selected for verification, only the FAFSA entry will appear
- If selected for verification, a request for additional documentation will appear along with the due date(s)
- If selected for verification, a student will not see any financial aid information until the verification process has been completed
- Monitor this site to track documentation as it is received by the Financial Aid Office

This will appear when a FAFSA application has been rejected: student must check Student Aid Report (SAR) on FAFSA website to determine issues

This will appear if we have received the FAFSA application. If we have not received it, student must check the FAFSA website to determine issues

Current status of all items including Due Date: Status Date appears as items are received
View the Status Date changes as requested documentation is received by the Financial Aid Office.

Status becomes “Received” and Status Date is the date received.

This file is complete. The student should receive an award letter shortly.
The student should also check the WebAdvisor on the MyWCCC Student Portal (my.wccc.edu) to view his/her financial aid per term

- Complete the log-in procedures to the Student Portal (my.wccc.edu)
- Click <Financial Aid>
Click <Financial Aid Status by Term>
- Select the Award Period (term/semester) from the drop-down box
- Click <SUBMIT>
View the financial aid for the selected Award Period

- This information will be available if the student is not selected for verification or if the verification process has been completed for a student who has been selected for verification
- All financial aid is temporary until after the add/drop period of each term
- Status codes for financial aid are:
  - A – Accepted (verified and eligible for financial aid)
  - E – Estimated (financial aid must be verified to determine eligibility)
  - P – Pending (student must apply for this type of financial aid)
  - D – Denial (not eligible for this type of financial aid: check with the Financial Aid Office)
- Financial aid information is based on full-time enrollment
- Loan funds are an estimated amount: a student must apply for a student loan to be eligible. If a student does not apply for a student loan, these funds will not disburse
- Remember: additional information is available on the Financial Aid page of the College website (www.wccc.edu)
Click <Financial Aid Award Letter> to view the award letter

D: not eligible for aid

A: verified and eligible for aid

P: application must be completed to determine eligibility
FAFSA Website (www.fafsa.ed.gov)

A student who sees “FAFSA Rejected” under <My Documents> on the WCCC Student Portal (my.wccc.edu) should:

- Access his/her FAFSA application on the FAFSA website (www.fafsa.ed.gov)
- View his/her Student Aid Report (SAR) to determine if there are any issues with the FAFSA application
  - Issues are reported on the first page of the Student Aid Report (SAR)
  - Student is responsible for correcting all issues indicated on his/her Student Aid Report (SAR)
  - If there are no issues, continue to the next step
- Check the school code on the FAFSA application
  - If necessary, change the school code to “010176” for WCCC
  - If the school code is correct, continue to the next section
Department of Education

A student who is unable to resolve all issues with his/her FAFSA application should contact the Department of Education at 1-800-433-3243 for help.

Financial Aid Department at WCCC

If a student still has questions after following these procedures, he/she should contact the Financial Aid Department at 724-925-4063 for further assistance.