Welcome back Westmoreland Faculty, Staff and Students

Our first priority remains the health, safety and security of our faculty, staff and students as we return to our classrooms, offices, labs and community spaces. We sincerely appreciate your patience and understanding during the COVID-19 outbreak. Since our move to remote teaching, we have been focused on following the expertise of organizations using science and data. We are also using those organizations to guide our reentry plan. We continue to use our website to post updates so please continue to check it regularly.

Our College Operating Plan is a comprehensive plan that outlines the best practices for maintaining the health and well-being of our college community. The plan will also be subject to change as information becomes available and best practices are enhanced by the PA Department of Health (PA DOH) and the Center of Disease Control (CDC).

As we look to the future, we will continue to be the AMBITIOUS institution that we have always been. Our college was started by a few that knew the importance of a community college and worked tirelessly to make it a reality. Over the last 50 years, many have spent decades building Westmoreland into the college it is today. As we look to the next 50 years, we will continue the legacy of working hard and dedicating ourselves to our students and the community.

Stakeholders Group

Policies and Procedures

A set of policies and procedures will be adhered to while under COVID-19 conditions. These policies and procedures align with guidelines from the CDC, the PA DOH and local guidance. All faculty, staff, students and visitors on college property are expected to adhere to the most recent guidance.

- CDC Covid-19
- Considerations for Institutes of Higher Education
- PA Department of Health
- Responding to COVID-19 in Pennsylvania
- College Student Communicable Disease Policy
- College Employee Communicable Disease Policy

Personal Protection Procedures:

- You are expected to monitor your own temperature daily - if you determine you are sick, stay home and notify your supervisor.
- Wash hands with soap and water for at least 20 seconds as frequently as possible. Hand sanitizer is also available in areas throughout each college property.
- Cover coughs or sneezes with a sleeve or elbow.
- Avoid shaking hands.
- Do not touch your face.
- Practice safe distancing and personal protection procedures when off campus to minimize risk to yourself and others. All people are required to wear a mask when indoors at any Westmoreland County Community College location.
- Students are expected to use their own face masks.
- Students in certain programs will be provided specific Personal Protection Equipment (PPE) by the college. This is a one-time accommodation. PPE is necessary in certain programs for academically related activities. Faculty will notify students of PPE requirements.

Social Distancing Procedures:

- All people are required to wear a mask when indoors at any Westmoreland County Community College location.
- Limit the number of people congregating for meetings or events. Number will be based on current guidelines issued by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.
- Meetings via Zoom are strongly encouraged in lieu of face-to-face gatherings.
- All visitors, contractors, and vendors are to adhere to safety requirements established by the college. Signage will reflect college requirements.
- Refer to the college policies for faculty, staff and students around communicable diseases
- Elevator passengers are to practice social distancing. All are encouraged to use stairs wherever possible.
- Travel for college business must be approved by their supervisor and their Cabinet member.

Facility Protection Procedures:

- HVAC systems are in use and are circulating outside air to ensure the atmosphere is safe.
- Custodial staff have been trained to use PPE and recommended cleaning and disinfecting practices. All future custodial staff new hires will also be trained in the proper use of PPE and all recommended cleaning and disinfecting practices.
- Custodial staff are cleaning and disinfecting buildings per CDC guidelines, especially high touch areas.

- All cleaning products meet Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) criteria for use against SARS-CoV-2, the virus that causes COVID-19.
- Cleaning wipes are provided if faculty, staff and students would like to clean their work areas.
- Doors are to be propped open when possible to minimize exposure on handles and maximize air flow; security will be considered and this does not pertain to college main doors.

Monitoring, Surveillance and Voluntary Reporting:

- Faculty, staff and students should report if they know they have been exposed to anyone who has tested positive for COVID-19.
- Faculty and staff should report directly to the Human Resources department. If you are vaccinated, you will need to show proof of vaccination to the Human Resources department. Contact the Human Resources department at directorhumanresources@westmoreland.edu prior to returning to work. For additional details, please refer to the Employee Communicable Disease policy.
- Student issues or concerns should be directed to Dr. Sydney Beeler, vice president/Enrollment Management. Students will need to show proof of vaccination to Dr. Sydney Beeler. Contact Dr. Sydney Beeler, vice president/Enrollment Management at VPErollmentManagement@westmoreland.edu prior to returning to the college. Please refer to the Communicable Disease Student Policy.
- Individuals can utilize the CDC's Self Checker to assist in making decisions in regards to seeking medical care.
- If a faculty, staff, student, or vendor has been exposed, they should follow the protocol applicable to them under the exposure guidelines listed below.

Symptomatic Protocols

- Faculty, staff, and students exhibiting the following symptoms should report to the appropriate personnel noted below and self-isolate.

- COVID Alert App - Westmoreland continues to keep the students, staff and faculty updated through our Westmoreland Operating Plan, the Wolfpack Returns. Our plan is always under review so that it remains current. The Pennsylvania Department of Health (DOH) also has a COVID Alert PA app. The app is free and is designed to help reduce the spread of the disease. It is an alert system that can quickly notify people who may have been in contact with a person who has tested positive for COVID-19.

The COVID Alert PA app protects your privacy and personal information.

Pennsylvanians are encouraged to use the app but it is voluntary. The app will not collect, transmit, or store your personal information. The app uses the Exposure Notifications System created by Google and Apple to help fight COVID-19 pandemic.

For more information or to download the app, click here. The DOH also has a video on their website about the COVID Alert PA app.

Frequently Asked Questions

Q: An employee believes someone is not vaccinated and they are concerned about being around them, what do they do?

A: The college is working diligently to decrease the spread of COVID-19. In the event that an employee and/or student tests positive for COVID-19 or reports that they have been exposed to someone who has tested positive for COVID-19, the college will perform additional steps to identify and notify individuals who may be exposed to an individual who tests positive for COVID-19.

The college will only inquire about an individual's vaccination in the event that the employee may have been exposed to someone who tests positive for COVID-19. Employees and students are requested to observe social distance guidelines to decrease the risk of spreading COVID-19.

Q: An employee is exposed to someone who is COVID positive, they are unvaccinated and need to self-isolate. Will they need to use sick, personal or vacation days?

A: Employees whose position allows for remote working and who choose to do so, can work remotely two days a week under the college's current hybrid working medium and retain Wednesday as an all-college on-ground work day.

All other time (outside of time that is worked remotely for self-isolation) must be covered using sick, personal or vacation days.

Q: An employee is exposed to someone who is COVID positive, they are vaccinated. What do they do?

A: If an employee is exposed to someone who tests positive for COVID-19, the employee is required to contact his/her immediate supervisor and Human Resources (via email) at directorhumanresources@westmoreland.edu immediately. The Human Resources department will provide further guidance on what will be required next.

Q: An employee is exposed to someone who is COVID positive, they are unvaccinated and need to self-isolate. Can they work/teach remotely during the self isolation period?

A: In the event that an employee (faculty) is exposed to someone who tests positive for COVID-19, but their position will allow for remote work and the employee chooses to work remotely, the employee can work remotely for up to two days a week. All other time for self-isolation must be covered using sick, personal or vacation days.

Additionally, classes are to be held in the same (original) format all semester unless the college makes a change. If the employee believes they are eligible for FMLA (Family & Medical Leave Act), they should contact the Human Resources department

Q: An employee has a child/parent who has been exposed to someone who is COVID positive and they need to self-isolate. Can the employee work/teach remotely or have the college cover their time off so they don't have to use sick, personal or vacation days?

A: Employees whose position allows for remote working and who choose to do so, can work remotely two days a week under the college's current hybrid working medium and retain Wednesday as an all-college on-ground work day.

All other time for self-isolation must be covered using sick, personal or vacation days.

If the employee is a faculty member, classes are to be held in the same (original) format all semester unless the college makes a change. If the employee believes they are eligible for FMLA (Family & Medical Leave Act), they should contact the Human Resources department.

Q: An employee tests positive for COVID. Does the employee have to use sick days, personal or vacation days and/or can they work/teach remotely?

A: Employees whose position allows for remote working and who choose to do so, can work remotely two days a week under the college's current hybrid working medium and retain Wednesday as an all-college on-ground work day.

All other time for self-isolation must be covered using sick, personal, vacation days, or unpaid leave.

Additionally, if the employee is a faculty member, classes are to be held in the same (original) format all semester unless the college makes a change. If the employee believes they are eligible for FMLA (Family & Medical Leave Act), they should contact the Human Resources department.

Q: An employee has an issue that is not COVID related - sick child, they are sick, need surgery or other medical procedure etc. Can the employee work/teach remotely?

A: Employees whose position allows for remote working and who choose to do so, can work remotely two days a week under the college's current hybrid working medium and retain Wednesday as an all-college on-ground work day.

All other time for self-isolation must be covered using sick, personal, vacation days, or unpaid leave.

Additionally, if the employee is a faculty member, classes are to be held in the same (original) format all semester unless the college makes a change. If the employee believes they are eligible for FMLA (Family & Medical Leave Act), they should contact the Human Resources department.

Q: Can a faculty member teach all of their courses online/remote?

A: Faculty members who have questions about the medium in which they would like to conduct their classes should contact their dean. Deans are responsible for making decisions in regard to teaching modality.

Q: What if there is inclement weather or another reason that in-person activities at the college sites are not being held.

A: Information about if the campus will remain open, closed, or delayed will be made via the college website and other communication mediums.

Additionally, essential personnel will receive guidance on if they will be required to report to campus.

Q: An employee who has been vaccinated has now tested positive for COVID. Does the employee have to use sick, personal or vacation and/or can they teach/work remotely?

A: Employees whose position allows for remote working and who choose to do so, can work remotely up to two days a week under the college's current hybrid working medium and retain Wednesday as an all-college on-ground work day.

All other time for self-isolation must be covered using sick, personal, vacation days, or unpaid leave.

Additionally, if the employee is a faculty member, classes are to be held in the same (original) format all semester unless the college makes a change. If the employee believes they are eligible for FMLA (Family & Medical Leave Act), they should contact the Human Resources department.

Q: In the instance where an entire department needs to self-isolate or has tested positive for COVID, can they work remotely?

A: Employees whose position allows for remote working and who choose to do so, can work remotely two days a week under the college's current hybrid working medium and retain Wednesday as an all-college on-ground work day.

All other time for self-isolation must be covered using sick, personal, vacation days, or unpaid leave.

Additionally, if the employee is a faculty member, classes are to be held in the same (original) format all semester unless the college makes a change. If the employee believes they are eligible for FMLA (Family & Medical Leave Act), they should contact the Human Resources department.

Moreover, on a case-by-case basis and based upon a business need, the college can make a different decision about working remotely.

Q: What happens when an employee is showing symptoms of COVID but is refusing to get tested for COVID?

A: Employees are not allowed to return to any college site until they have completed the self-isolation period and are symptom free or produce a negative COVID-19 test to the Office of Human Resources. COVID- 19 test results can be emailed to the Office of Human Resources at directorhumanresources@westmoreland.edu.

Q: An employee has been exposed to a COVID positive child/family member at home. If the employee is vaccinated what do they need to do and if the employee is not vaccinated what do they need to do?

A: Vaccinated and Boosted - If the employee can provide a valid vaccination card and are symptom free, they do not need to self-isolate and can resume work as usual wearing a mask for ten days.

Additionally, the employee will need to get tested for COVID- 19, five (5) days after exposure and produce a negative test result to the Office of Human Resources via email at directorhumanresources@westmoreland.edu.

Vaccinated but not boosted or unvaccinated - Employees are not allowed on any college site until they have self isolated for five (5) days and are symptom free. After five (5) days, if they are asymptomatic they may resume in-person activities whilst wearing a mask. They must test on day five (5) and provide test results to the Office of Human Resources via email at directorhumanresources@westmoreland.edu.

Q: What if there is an outbreak on campus and multiple employees are all confirmed COVID positive?

A: The college will assess the impact on employees and college operations and determine and communicate next steps.

Q: What if employees are not comfortable working in a space with potentially unvaccinated people?

A: Refer them to the Human Resources department. They can also request plexiglass in their workspace.

Q: What if employees are not comfortable being in a workspace where students can enter and can be potentially unvaccinated?

A: Refer them to Human Resources. They can also request plexiglass in their workspace.

Q: What if I need to reference any Human Resources related information?
